HERITAGE CANNABIS
Holdings Corp

CSE: CANN

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release CannaCure Extraction Machines Installed

Vancouver, B.C., April 10, 2019 – HERITAGE CANNABIS HOLDINGS CORP. (CSE: CANN) (“Heritage” or “Company”) is pleased to announce the two Vitalis Q90 extraction machines have been successful installed at the CannaCure Corp (“CannaCure”) Fort Erie facility and are awaiting final manufacturer’s certification, expected to be received before the end of April, 2019.

CannaCure will be expecting the first delivery of hemp to arrive for processing from their stockpile in Saskatchewan prior to the end of the month. Technicians from Purefarma Solutions (“Purefarma”) are on site working with the Quality Assurance staff from CannaCure to prepare to accept and process this feedstock.

“Progress continues at a quick pace, and we are busy getting CannaCure’s facility prepared for operations” states Clint Sharples, CEO of Heritage. “The award of CannaCure’s processing and medical licence from Health Canada on April 1st allows us to begin extracting oils from cannabis, and provides us with a clear path to implement our phase 2 expansion plan within the Fort Erie facility.”

About Heritage Cannabis Holdings Corp.

The Company is focused on becoming a vertically integrated cannabis provider that currently has two Health Canada approved licenced producers, through its subsidiaries Voyage Cannabis Corp. and CannaCure Corp. both regulated under the Cannabis Act Regulations. Working under these two licences, Heritage has two additional subsidiaries, Purefarma Solutions, which provides extraction services, and Britelife Sciences which is focused on cannabis based medical solutions. Heritage as the parent company, is focused on providing the resources for its subsidiaries to advance their products or services to compete both domestically and internationally.
